The Boer War Condensed.

In the North American Review for March, former President Harrison has the second of his papers on "The Boer War," treating of the "British Alliance" and the "Boer War."
Gen. Harrison says in part: "It is not the inevitable tendency of any attempt to get Great Britain and the United States into a league of allies to try to strengthen an anti-British party in the United States and an anti-American party in Great Britain. If a friendship between Great Britain and the United States that would make their immediate relations cordial and unite their influence for peace and human progress is to be maintained, it must be a moral instead of a commercial union. Moral shield; commercial interests shift. The friendship must be a party here with a party there. Upon that basis we shall have racking alterations of gush and coldness. Is the friendly co-operation of the two nations to be rested upon the abandonment or modification of her traditional policy, or upon the abandonment of the paramountcy of one of the great powers? Does Great Britain accept the 'open door' policy—that is equal commercial privileges to all nations—we have, perhaps, found a common basis of diplomatic action. To us this means, I still think, the recognition of the autonomy of weak nations and their right to regulate their own internal affairs as opposed to dismemberment or the paramountcy of one of the great powers. Does Great Britain accept the 'open door' policy in that sense?"

Last We Forget.

President McKinley reviewed the inaugural parade from a magnificent Court of Honor which stretched its stately length along Pennsylvania avenue in Washington for a distance of several blocks, covering the front of the United States Treasury, the White House, the State, War and Navy buildings.
It was an imposing spectacle, this great day, proud, of the President reviewing the impressive pageant of organized in his honor. The written description of the march past the Chief Executive of the nation reads like the accounts of the surpassingly splendid pomp that marked the celebration of the late Queen and Empress Victoria's diamond jubilee in royal England. The total cost of Mr. McKinley's second inauguration as President of the United States is estimated at $4,230,000.

Like Fiction.

The dime novelist may now go out of business. Here are the facts: Elaine Sinclair, born in a log cabin, in Blanco county, Texas. Farm boys taught her before she was 15. Frugal looks gave her a longing for the gay life. She put on her brown clothes, took a gun and waylaid the stage which had passed by her house every day since her birth. No suspicion as to Elaine.
Several months after she returned home "dressed to kill." Her old neighbor said Elaine had been visiting her rich aunt, who died and left her money.
Son of rich banker in the country—Slocum was his name—married the girl. Honey moon in New Orleans. Elaine wanted to go abroad. Slocum said no. Bride took ill. Groom's father, rich old banker, comes to see what the matter. Few days later son sent home; old man fidgets; hypnotized by his daughter-in-law. They elope to Europe. One day daughter-in-law disappears with handsome man. Old man Slocum, nearly penniless, works his way home on a tramp steamer. Arrives, alleges to have been spent by Slocum $50,000.

Story of "Nearer, My God, To Thee."

"As a writer, as a poet, there were few in the literary world of London in the forties who had not heard of Sarah Flower Adams, the gifted woman to whom all Christendom today pays homage in its love for her immortal hymn, 'Nearer, My God, To Thee.'"
It was written in 1840, and had frequently been set to the music by Eliza Flower, and included in a collection of hymns written and composed by the two sisters.
"Only within that year had their book of 'Hymns and Anthems' been published, and the hymn that was destined to inspire the world had then been heard but once or twice, and within the walls of a single church—Palace Chapel, London."

Twice Proven.

From The Vicar, Rutherford, N. C. The editor of the Vicar has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm with the most remarkable results in each case. First with rheumatism in the shoulder with which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts affected and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the balm on retiring at night and getting up free from pain. For sale by M. Graves.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR COUNTY CLERK.
We are authorized to announce P. T. COOLEY a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Adair County subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The Senate adjourned sine die last Saturday.

Another alleged victim of hanging has come to light at Boston.

Ex-President Harrison is a very sick man, and much uneasiness is felt concerning him.

It is reported that J. Pierpont Morgan is the father of a plan to unite German and American trusts.

Hon. Thomas B. Reed, who has been a leader of the Republican party for many years, is now out of politics.

We have often heard it said that there's many tricks in politics. There are others who have heard it.

Bourbon county Democrats in news meeting declares for Judge James E. Cantrell to succeed Senator Deboe.

The Appropriation of the 56th Congress was $1,440,022.54. It is a record breaker but it was the people money appropriated.

Something happened in the court-house last Monday. It convened, carried its points, made no concessions to the minority and then adjourned.

A cyclone struck Willis Point, Texas, last Saturday, killing four persons and destroying property valued at $50,000. Quite a number of persons sustained injuries.

Only $4,000,000 was spent at the inauguration of McKinley, but it was carried out just the same as if there was plenty of cash on hand.

Representative Boring has sent out his speech on the River and Harbor bill. Mr. Boring has made an earnest effort to secure an appropriation for the upper Cumberland River, as his speech clearly indicates.

On his retirement from the United States Senate the President makes Mr. Lindsey a Commissioner to the St. Louis Exposition at a salary of $5,000. The ex-Senator is fast coming around. Another jerk and he will be one of them.

The Louisville Times voices the sentiment of the whole country when it states that profound regret is expressed on account of the serious illness of ex-President Harrison. Since his retirement from the Presidency he has borne himself in such commendable spirit as to enlist the good opinion of all, regardless of political differences.

Auditor Coulter will in a few days notify the life insurance companies doing business in the State to submit reports for franchise taxation. The Auditor holds that these corporations are taxable on franchise valuations under the provisions of section 4078 of the Statutes, though the former Auditor did not make any effort at collection. If the Auditor is right this taxation will yield to the State $100,000.

The so called indignation meeting held in Louisville to protest against the action of Governor Beckham in his pardons of Alvey and Miles was merely a move to further prejudice a few self styled Democrats against the Democratic party, rather than a real, heart-felt desire to see Louisville freed from crime or the guilty incarcerated in prison. These same purificationists made no protests against the wholesale pardoning of all classes of criminals under the Bradley reign! They did not meet to pass resolutions of denunciation against fugitive Taylor when he set at liberty men accused of crime and took them from the custody of officers. Nay, these political saints did not condemn the attempted pardon, by this same Taylor, of four or five men indicted for as foul a murder as was ever committed, and that before any arrests or trials! They did not condemn Taylor in his efforts to protect the murders of Mr. Goebel and now when a Democrat holds the gavel of power and when pardons have been granted two confessed criminals this saintly city crowd throws up its hands in holy horror and seeks to saddle it on the back of Democracy. The man or men who could indorse the revolutionary methods of Taylor and his pardoning of men charged with murder are not the ones to condemn the pardon of Alvey and Miles. It is all done for political effect.

The Luray County Herald speaks of it thusly: "The inaugural ceremonies at Washington were elaborate almost beyond description. Thousands of dollars were drawn from the National Treasury to defray the expenses of the occasion. The military display was gorgeous, and it is said to have been a reproduction of monarchical military pomp and splendor when kings and queens are crowned. Another long stride has been taken toward an imperial government of wars and bloodshed, of corruption and dishonor; another blow has been dealt to citizenship and another thrust has been made at the foundation of the Republic. Another step has been taken toward that imperial chasm at the bottom of which are slave fetters, but, thanks to heaven, they yet remain a few barriers along the route to the precipice."

The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Record, speaking of the changes in the bill to repeal the war revenue tax, says: "The banks and brokers and the commercial interests generally are still treated very handsomely, and the people get a little more benefit than they would have enjoyed if the bill that passed the Senate had become a law." The grand old party is still looking after its friends. The vast majority of people who are not bankers or brokers seem to have been entirely overlooked. If the farmers have been "treated handsomely" the correspondent has forgotten to so state.

The trial of George and John Reeves for murdering a deputy sheriff and town marshal in Jasper, Ind., was set for last Monday. The outcome of the trial of these notorious criminals will be watched with much interest in this section of Kentucky. They are said to have a large amount of money in their possession and to have employed some of the best legal talent in Kentucky to defend them. The idea prevails, however, at the place of trial that they will be given the death penalty. They are the same men who turned the town of Tompkinsville a few years ago.

It is reported that the President has informed Senator Deboe that he must submit a new list of recommendations for the offices in Eastern Kentucky judicial district. It is believed that Deboe will now indorse Bradley for the Judgeship. It comes from Washington that the President has never seriously considered Mr. Pugh's application.

While several parties were in the office of Sam Nash, Manchester, last Thursday, making preparations to sign a bond, they were fired upon from the court-house, circuit court being in session at the time. About one hundred shots were fired, the party in the office taking a hand. Only two men were wounded.

Mr. Chairman, the Cumberland River flows 300 miles on an air line through the Eleventh district, and much farther by its meanderings.—Vincent Boring.

We are in receipt of Hon. Vincent Boring's speech made in the Lower House of our National Congress asking for an appropriation to improve the upper Cumberland. The speech is all right, a good one, but it did not bring a dam.

The Interior Journal is outspoken for ex-Governor McCree to succeed Senator Deboe. McCree is a good Democrat, an able statesman and would fill that exalted position with honor. He is good enough for us.

Think of the great gush of applause and the princely salaries attached to the rulers of our land and then remember the millions of hard workers whose only hope is a scanty living and the conclusion is that the classes and the masses are drifting apart, is irremediable.

The people of Indiana and Illinois are becoming acquainted with the same troubles that caused lynchings in the South and they resort to the same as quickly as do the Southern people. Human nature is the same, North and South, and similar conditions demonstrate it.
